

- Neither version (single vs. 2-body) of the solver converges, so I didn't time how long they take and I didn't generate plots
- All needed quantities are computed, but the data is of course garbage
- CD constraints for the second revolute joint are violated at the start, so something is wrong with the initial conditions or the CD constraints